Re: *Sevenson Environmental Services, Inc. v. Gordon D. McDonald, et al.
Civ. Action No. 08-CV-1386 (RMB-AMD)

Dear Judge Donio:

On behalf of defendant Diversified Royalty Corporation (“Diversified”), we write in accordance with the Court’s letter filed on March 16, 2016 (Dkt. No. 374) directing that the parties advise of any objection to the latest revision to Plaintiff’s Request for International Judicial Assistance (Letters Rogatory) (the “Request”). Consistent with Diversified’s letters submitted on October 21, 2016 (Dkt. No. 363), December 12, 2016 (Dkt. No. 369) and February 6, 2017 (Dkt. No. 371), Diversified takes no position on the current form of the Request, including the additional revisions proposed by Plaintiff on March 21, 2017 (Dkt. No. 375). Diversified, however, expressly preserves any objections available to it in any potential proceedings before a Canadian court as to the scope and enforceability of the Request.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads 'John Vukelj'. Below the signature, the name 'John Vukelj' is printed in a standard black font.
